By the Senate Feb. 28th, 1827.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The Senate have received your message proposing an adjournment of the legislature on the 10th of March, and believing the public business may all be acted upon, and finally disposed of by that day, with great pleasure concur with the house of delegates in the propriety of their terminating the session.

By order,

Wm. Kilty, Clk.

And then the house adjourned until this evening 6 o'clock.

SIX O'CLOCK, P. M. WEDNESDAY, February 28th, 1827.

The house met, pursuant to adjournment. Were present, the same members, as in the morning.

Bills of the following titles, were severally reported, viz.

By Mr. Brown, An act to rebuild or repair a bridge at Federalsburgh, between Dorchester and Caroline counties; which bill was read the first, and by a special order, the second time and considered.

On motion by Mr. Wright, the second section thereof, was amended by striking out "one dollar," in the tenth line of the section, and substituting therefor, "two dollars, as the compensation to be allowed the commissioners therein mentioned for their services," per day. The said bill was then passed, as amended.
